

SERVICES

Adam is a full service commercial real estate brokerage located in Minneapolis, Minnesota.

We work with clients that require the integration of company culture, flexible use and financial sensibility in their real estate endeavors. We offer professional and confidential services in the following areas:

Tenant Representation

We love finding great space for great clients. We love exploring the commercial market, finding creative solutions and helping make ideal matches between buildings and companies, spaces and people. This is why we are in this business.

Commercial & Investment Property Acquisition and Disposition

Growing? Divesting? Retiring? Whatever your transition, our market understanding and needs analysis will help identify and procure the best options for the company or your portfolio.

Real Estate Marketing Services

With a background in design and having worked in the development of commercial projects, we have the ability to help your real estate projects and properties captivate an audience and stay on task and message.

Business Consultation Services

Because you're best when you're working in the business, we help you work smart on your business. Making plans to grow or in pain from growing to fast? With a background in business operations, management and consulting, we've helped many companies efficiently work through the issues.

The foundation of our service is our ability to listen and the agility to act. Adam Commercial applies acumen and accountability to all its actions on behalf of its select client roster. Knowing we are not out to be 'all things to all people,' we focus our services on a specific profile of client and/or project opportunity.
